NO.	BID	REMARKS	NO.	BID	REMARKS

Yours Respectfully,

PREFACE.

On careful perusal of the following pages we believe every collector will find some article to interest him, and we hope he will make a bid for it. The varied character of the several collections enabling him to do so. We would call attention to the collection of Roman and Greek coins, the complete set of gold dollars, and among which are exceedingly rare mint marks as 1854 San Francisco, 1859 Dahlonega, 1860 Dahlonega, of which probably about 5 in all are known. The California Baldwin & Co. $5, one of the great rarities, the superb $50 round and octagon. The Wilcox collection of U. S. Fractional Paper Currency is one of the finest yet offered—rivalled only by the great collection of Monroe J. Friedman, which we sold last year; collectors in this series will find about all the notes they lack, and as many of them are the only specimens obtainable should excite keen competition. Canadian collectors will have a chance to enrich their cabinets with the finest Owen Ropery, side view pennies and half pennies, rare proofs, unique Carrit and Alport, Bridge Tokens, etc.

No lot is separated—all described under each lot number are sold under that number, at so much each piece, no matter how many there may be in it, except where set or lot is stated.

Owing to several persons sending in bids and not paying for the goods bought and delivered to them, it has become necessary to request collectors unknown to us to send bank reference with their bids or to pay in advance for the lots purchased for them. We find our practice of examining each bid letter on receipt, and instructing the bidder where he appears uninformed as to values, or is probably making a mistake in the lot number, gives much satisfaction to our numerous clients. All letters received four days prior to the day of sale receive this examination. Many errors are thus corrected, often considerable sums saved to the bidder—and also collectors who make bids far below current market value when so informed concentrate the sum they desire to spend on lots within their means, thus securing more than they otherwise would.

Priced catalogues will be supplied after sale on receipt of 75c. (stamps taken, any denomination). Payment required with order.

We charge 10 per cent. additional to the price the lot is knocked down for on those purchased by us for our bidders, as our commission for executing the bids, purchasing and shipping. The auctioneers will attend to bids free of this charge, but they assume no risks or responsibility for shipment, and require payment to be made before delivery of the goods.

This has been the rule of the trade for thirty years or more, and we may add that it is an arduous undertaking to enter and attend to the thousands of bids received, the majority of which are unsuccessful and on which there is no remuneration. We have city customers who come to the rooms in person, examine the collection and leave us their bids, paying us the 10 per cent. commission on bills of $300 to $500.

All coins, medals or paper money sold by us are guaranteed genuine, and this holds good indefinitely.

Very respectfully,

S. H. & H. CHAPMAN,

NUMISMATISTS. 1348 Pine Street,

Philadelphia.

Louisiana Purchase Gold Dollar.

[By Farran Zerbe.]

FINEST EXAMPLE OF MODERN COINAGE ART.

"The late coins issued from the United States Mint at Philadelphia to commemorate the Louisiana Purchase Exposition and known as the Louisiana Purchase Gold Dollar have been pronounced by numismatists the finest examples of modern coining art. This coinage, which will live as a metallic memorial of the great World's Fair of 1904, was provided for by a specific Act of Congress, which also limits their issue to 250,000 pieces. The entire coinage will be delivered direct to the Exposition Company and will represent a part of the Government's general appropriation of $5,000,000 for the Exposition.

These specially designed coins are of two types: two obverses having the same reverse; 125,000 bear an excellent likeness of Thomas Jefferson—the Government father of the Louisiana Purchase. This portrait of Jefferson, which is pronounced the best known, was taken from one of the medals in the Mint cabinet, the original of which was engraved by John Reich, who, for some years during the Jefferson period, was connected with the Mint. The other 125,000 present the profile of William McKinley, the Government father of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. The McKinley portrait was also taken from a Mint cabinet medal, for which the late president gave special sittings to Mint Engraver Charles E. Barber, and which is considered by the late president's friends his best portrait.

Surrounding these profile portraits is the inscription: United States of America. The reverse is inscribed: Louisiana Purchase Exposition | St. Louis | which surrounds One | Dollar | 1803 | 1903 and a small olive branch, emblematic of peace.

Gold dollars were first issued in 1849 and coined every year until discontinued in 1889. During these forty years over nineteen million pieces passed to circulation, and, though it is less than fifteen years since they ceased to be coined, all have disappeared from circulation. In fact this type of coin is a curiosity to many and the most common dates command $2 each from coin dealers and the rarest, 1875, is in demand at prices approaching $60.

The general interest that is to be found for the regular issue prompted the Exposition Company to adopt the gold dollar for its commemorative coinage; and the prices the regular issue commands, considering the large number that were coined, led to placing the price of $3 on the Louisiana Purchase gold dollar. In an official circular it is stated: "No coins of this issue will be placed upon sale at a lower figure." Most all who will find an interest in preserving this coin, which may be called a gem, will want both types and in this respect only 125,000 purchasers can be accommodated.

The Louisiana Purchase gold dollar is the fourth child in the numismatic family of United States commemorative issues; it is the diminutive member of that family but the most artistic and powerful, as it is the finest example of designing, engraving and stamping and is of gold. The older members of the family are less fine and all in the baser metal, silver."

Justice to its artistic merits cannot be given in an illustration. The excellent portraiture that has been reproduced within the diameter of half an inch, is indicative of our country's progress and leadership in the art of die engraving and metal stamping."

The proceeds from the sale of the Louisiana Gold Dollar will be directly employed for general Exposition purposes and the purchaser and those assisting in its sale, not only evince a patriotism worthy of the grand commemorating event of one of this country's most notable epochs, but will be direct contributors to what is now, in its approaching stages of completion, more than a promise—the greatest of World's Fairs.

"Coins are the breviaries of antiquity, the torch light of history; the supplements of the old vacillating and darkening faith, the fabulem of reading. The papyraceous sea has its ebb and flow; all do not break through by force nor do all written pages go forth to immortality. The coin alone scorns the power of death glorying in a metallic eternity."

"The Louisiana Gold Dollar is not only a superlative souvenir: it is an historic memento of an unexcelled commemoration; a monument to medalistic art; a keepsake to be prized; a gift to be appreciated."
